Grade Weights

---

To be successful in your online courses, it's important to know how your work will be graded. Your overall grade is determined by calculating the weighted averages of your activities. Your teacher will be able to provide you with the grade weight percentages that have been assigned to your course, and you can keep track of those activity weights here.

Assignments	Weight
Assignments	%
Essays	%
Labs	%
Projects	%
Additional	%

Assessments	Weight
Quizzes	%
Tests	%
Exams	%

Not all courses will include every activity listed here, so be sure to check with your teacher about which of these activities will be in your course.

Logging In

Begin by logging into the system. Once on the login page, use your username and password to gain access to your online courses. Please visit the URL below:

<https://www.edgenuity.com/SIS-login>

Write your username and password here for future reference:

The screenshot shows the Edgenuity website header with the logo and navigation menu. Below the header is a dark blue navigation bar with links: The Difference, Curriculum + Research, Solutions, The Experience, Support, and News + Reviews. The main content area features a white box titled "Student Information System" with a login form. The form includes fields for "Login:" and "Password:", an "Enter" button, and a link for "Forgot your login and/or password?". To the right of the form is a video player thumbnail with the text "Watch the orientation video". The footer contains four columns of links: "Navigate" (The Difference, Curriculum + Research, Solutions, The Experience, Support, News + Reviews), "Leadership" (the Edge, the Expert Edge, the Leading Edge), "Resources" (Video Library, Awards, Research Papers, Webinars), and "About Edgenuity" (a paragraph about the company's mission and impact).

The top graph is your course completion bar. The more work you do, the more the boxes will fill up. The colors also indicate your current pacing if your start and target date are set:

- Blue boxes show you are on track for completing your course on time.
- Green boxes show you are ahead of schedule and could finish early.
- Red boxes show you are falling behind and might not complete the course by the target date. You should prioritize working in the course to get back on track.

Keep an eye on the Target Completion bar and Target Completion percentage at the bottom of the graph. This is your guide to help you stay on track and where you should be by the end of the day. This bar moves forward every day and will follow the same colors as the progress completion bar.

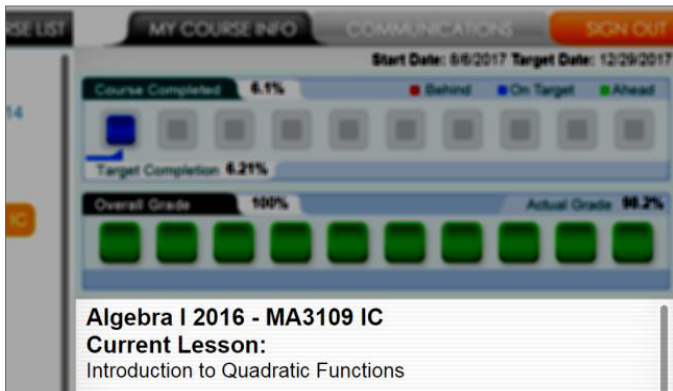

The second graph is your overall grade bar. It will also display colors that indicate your grade as follows:

- Grade is between 0%–59%
- Grade is between 60%–69%
- Grade is between 70%–79%
- Grade is between 80%–89%

Courseware Tools

Your online courses include a number of tools available to support your learning. You can take virtual, electronic notes (eNotes), use the online glossary to view new vocabulary, and even read transcripts of the video instruction to ensure you don't miss key information.

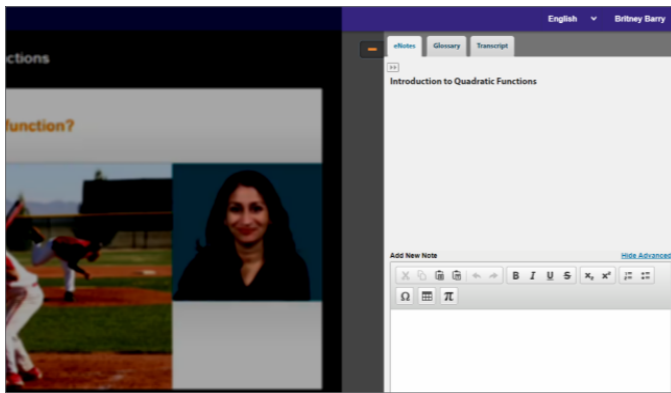

Many courses also have subject-specific tools available like calculators, formula sheets, and the periodic table. And if your teacher enables additional tools for you, you could have access to translate the text you see on screen into one of 17 different languages, or even highlight text to have it read aloud to you. Let's take a look at some examples.
